

1882-007 Chancery Causes: David Bishop vs. Orlena Bishop Lee Co.

Lawson, Herd

CA-Divorce

To the Honorable John A. Kelly, Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County.

Humblly complaining, Sheweth unto your Honor, your orator David Bishop a citizen of Lee County Virginia, that heretofore, to wit: on the day of 1874 in the County of and State of your orator and his wife Orleans Bishop (then Orleans Lawson) were united in marriage.

Your orator and his said wife resided together, since their marriage, in the County of Lee and State of Virginia, and lived together as man and wife, up to about the month of March 1875, during all of which time your orator endeavored to and did bestow upon his wife all that care protection and comfort &c, which is due from a husband to his wife, and gave her no reason or excuse for her subsequent misconduct which your orator will hereafter set forth.

Your orator farther states and charges that about the month of March 1875, his said wife, disregarding her marriage vows, deserted your orator and his home and has remained away ever since. And your orator further states, that he in no wise connived at her misconduct.

There was one child by the name of Stakely born, the issue of said marriage.

Your orator is not willing to continue longer in the marriage state with his said wife, and is advised that a court of equity will relieve him from such an alliance, upon proper testimony, which your orator is ready to and will produce.

The premises considered, the prayer of your orator is, that the said Orleans Bishop be made a party defendant to this bill, and be required to answer the same fully and truthfully. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between your orator and his said wife, be perpetually dissolved by your Honor's decree.

And if your orator has in any may mistake his remedy, he prays for all such other, farther and different relief as equity may require, and is consistent with good conscience.

May the commonwealth's subpoena in Chancery issue

And your orator will ever pray. &c

David Bishop.
